SPECIAL OLYMPICS BC

Dignity, acceptance, and a chance to reach one's potential – these are human rights worth promoting for everyone. Since 1968, Special Olympics has been bringing one message to the world: people with intellectual disabilities can and will succeed if given the opportunity.

Special Olympics is often the only place where individuals with intellectual disabilities have an opportunity to participate in their communities and develop a sense of belief in themselves. Many live lives of neglect and isolation, hidden away or socially excluded from full participation in schools or society. Special Olympics sports are a gateway to empowerment, competence, acceptance, and joy for all athletes.

"It's a place where I know I am accepted just as myself. It feels like family to me. I can be something great in Special Olympics."

-Carson Buzdegan, Special Olympics BC - Langley athlete

Not only do these programs transform individuals with intellectual disabilities, they also help transform their communities. When people see Special Olympics athletes in action, they see their humanity, their joy in competition, their pride and their potential, and they begin to believe in a different kind of world - a world in which everyone is respected and included.

The Sports Celebrities Festival is one of the biggest events of the year for Special Olympics BC, and your support of this event plays a critical part in changing lives and communities through the power and joy of sport.

CANUCKS FOR KIDS FUND

THE POWER OF GIVING

The Vancouver Canucks believe in the power of giving. Just like you, we love kids and we want to help. With our fans and employees we celebrate contributions to our community that have a lasting impact. Since it was first created 33 years ago, the Canucks for Kids Fund (CFKF) has granted more than $59 million to charities in British Columbia serving children and their families.

CFKF grants to the following core beneficiaries: Canucks Autism Network, Canuck Place Children's Hospice and BC Children's Hospital Foundation. The CFKF also delivers programming through the Canucks Family Education Centre, Fin's Friends Character Education program, PowerPLAY Health & Fitness program, and the Canucks Centre for BC Hockey. Key grants have also been made to Boys & Girls Club of South Coast BC, Family Services of Greater Vancouver, Province Empty Stocking Fund, Britannia Hockey Academy, and many more.

"Throughout my years with the Canucks, I've seen the tremendous impact that events like the Sports Celebrities Festival can have on families across our great province," says Trevor Linden, Canucks President, Hockey Operations. "I'm very proud to be part of an organization that is committed to giving back in the community. I know that together we can make a huge difference in the lives of British Columbians today and for future generations."

We understand the extraordinary opportunity to inspire our young people and lift the hearts of many, and we need you with us. Join the Team. Help us Help.
